

GEOGRAPHY PHOTO COMPETITION

---

HUNGERHILL STUDENTS

PERSONAL GEOGRAPHIES

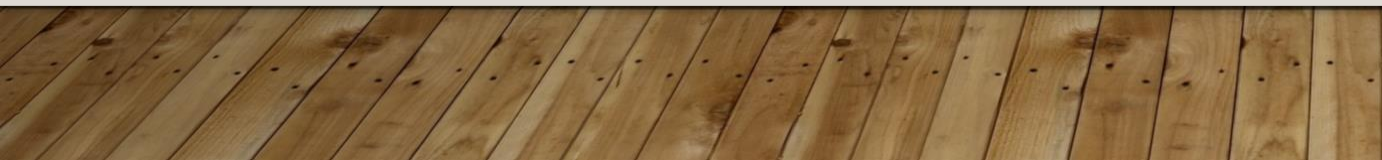

FEBRUARY 2021

WHAT DO YOU HAVE TO DO?

---

- During half term, when out for your socially distanced exercise, take an incredible photograph of something relating to a geography topic you have studied or are interested in
- Give the photograph a catchy title or #hashtag (geography related)
- Option to create a montage of photographs on a theme
- Could be a photograph of something geography related in your home or garden
- Email your photograph to Mrs Cook Cook.C@hungerhillschool.com
- First prize Digital camera, two runners up £10 love to shop voucher each
- All entries will be collated into a slideshow to share
- Closing date: Friday 26th February

DO's	DON'Ts
Look all around you for exciting ideas – be creative	Include pictures of yourself or members of your family
Use examples of physical and human geography	Go anywhere dangerous or trespass to take a photograph

IDEAS

---

- Extreme weather
- Rivers
- Small scale ecosystems
- Transport
- Food miles
- Energy supplies
- Economic change
- Recycling

"Everything has to do with geography."

Judy Martz, former Governor of Montana