Dear Parents/Carers,

We hope this letter finds you well. It fills us with immense pride to be writing to you to share the fantastic outcomes of our recent Ofsted inspection.

As you know, after a 12 year wait, Ofsted visited Hungerhill in December. We think it's fair to say that it was a visit we had been anticipating for a number of years and, on the whole, felt a genuine sense of excitement about – we were keen to share and celebrate the things that make Hungerhill the special and unique place that it is!

We are extremely pleased to be able to tell you that we received an 'Outstanding' rating in all four of the Ofsted categories: Quality of Education; Behaviour and Attitudes; Personal Development; and Leadership and Management. I am sure you can appreciate the amount of work that has gone into sustaining this judgement since the school's last inspection in 2012. This is a beautiful reflection of the dedication, care, and love that resonates throughout Hungerhill, and I hope you'll agree that it's a well-deserved recognition for our wonderful students, you as their parents and carers and our very talented school staff and Trust team.

The Ofsted report shines a light on several key strengths that make our school special:

- The exceptional community, permeated by high expectations, where students embody our strong school values of resilience, respect, care, consideration honesty and excellence and feel safe and happy at school.
- The exemplary behaviour and attitudes of our students which create a vibrant and productive atmosphere in lessons and around school that the inspectors were quick to applaud.
- The personal growth of our students stands out brilliantly, with a wealth of opportunities for them to develop into well-rounded individuals, support others and be ambitious for their own futures.
- Our extremely ambitious curriculum delivered to a very high standard which enables all students to achieve excellent outcomes.
- The passionate and knowledgeable staff who help to create our positive culture and offer our students wonderful support inside and outside of the classroom.

We are thrilled that Ofsted saw the vibrant spirit and the nurturing heart of Hungerhill, which you all help to foster. We are incredibly proud!

We hope that you will take the time to read the Ofsted report in full, which you can find at the following link: Hungerhill School - Ofsted Reports

As our valued parents and carers, we cannot thank you enough for the part you have played in our school's journey; your support was undoubtedly a crucial element in securing the outcome we achieved.

Warmest regards,

Mrs H Redford-Hernandez
Co-CEO BFLPT

Mr G Rawson
